Washington Correspondence of the New-York Tribune - SATURDAY, Sept. 11th.

The change of Cabiner, which has been so fruitula ineme of discourse and conjecture for some time past, has at length taken place. The Secretaries of the Treasury, of War, of the Navy, the Attorney General, and the Postmaster General, have tendered their resignations to the President. It was believed that Mr. Granger would continue at the arduous post of duty, the discharge of which he has so faithfully and untiringly prosecuted; and it was not till this afternoon, and at the advice and solicitation of the New-York Whig Delegation, that he resigned. To fill these vacancies,

The following nominations have been made to the Senate:

WALTER FORWARD (Whig) of Pa., Secretary of the Treasury; John McLean (State Rights) of Ohio, Secretary of War; A. P. UPSHUR (State Rights) of Va., Secretary of the Navy; HUGH S. LEGARE (Conservative) of South Carolina, Attorpey General.

For Post-Master General, several are remored 12: C. A. WICKLIFFE of Ky., ELISHA WHIT-TLEST and THOMAS CORWIN of Ohio.

It is not known that the Senate have acted on soy of them.

The lines of party-Administration and anti-Administration, seem rapidly to be forming. A aw paper, the Whig Journal, it is advertised, is to be established here, the need of which the Albam Evening Journal of your State predicates on the assumption that the Madisonian has left the Whig raks, in which it has been so conspicuous and able as agent, and to which the Journal bids farewell. charging it with a desertion of its former friends. Messrs. Tallmadge and J. C. Clark, and union with Messes. Gilmer, Mallory, &c. It is here said that the Administration will make the Madisonian its sile organ at the seat of Government, and that it is p become a daily paper.

Both Houses of Congress have completed their legislative business, and adopted a resolution to adjourn on Monday. The House of REPRESENTATIVES have to-day teen occupied on the case of the affray between Messrs. Wise and STANLY, which occurred day before vesterday. Mr. INGERSOLL, Chairman of the Select Committee, made a report, setting forth, fat, the facts of the case, which very nearly coinciled, and resolving that they be entered on the Journal 'as a reprimand;' and providing that here ther when insulting words are applied by one mem her to another, a fine of $100 shall be inflicted, and then an assault is made, the Speaker shall introsice a resolution for the expulsion of the offending member, and the House shall immediately ac-

Much debate ensued on this Report, and on the occumstances of this case, in which the greater part, if not the entire, blame was, with scarcely a single exception, thrown on Mr. Wise, who commenced the assault. The Report was objected to as indefinite, and as inculpating both parties; and motions were made to amend it, by referring exclusively to the assailant, Mr. WISE.

Mr. Wisz acknowledged his offence, and hi, willingness to submit to any judgement the House might inflict. He was willing to be tried by them except the gentleman from Massachusetts, (Mr ADAMS.)

Mr. ADAMs disclaimed all enmity towards Mr. Wise, and further declared that he would vote no censure on him.

Mr. STANLY said the report was equivocal in its character. He had inquired of the Chairman whether it intended to throw any censure on him, (Mr. S.) The Chairman had replied that he did not know. He (Mr. S.) hoped that it would not be adopted to go forth to the country in this form. If it was thought by one member of this body that his course had been blameworthy, he would resign his seat, and never appear as a Whig on that floor, except his stains had been purged away by re-elec

Mr. WARREN of Ga. moved to amend the report so as to apply exclusively to Mr. Wise, and that he be expelled from the House.

meted debate, the report was recommitted, with astructions to report that Hon. H. A. Wise, having assailed Hon. Edward Stanly, and having made full confession theresf, all further proceedings be dispensed with. This was carried, by a vote of 104 to 36.

Mr. STANLY, by his high-minded and honorable course in this matter, has increased, if possible, even the reputation of his hitherto untarnished name, which will be proudly chrished by his asso ciates here, not one of whom can attach to it the slightest imputation. In SENATE, a report from the Secretary of the Treasury was received, showing the state of the accounts of the Pennsylvania Bank with the Government, and the indebtedness of the former, to the amount of $29,606. It was laid on the table and ordered printed. The resolution reducing the price of printing of the Departments of Government to that of Congress was indefinitely postponed, after some conversation showing that the present law provided for its being done by bids at the lowest prices.

The resolution for adjournment on Monday at 11 o'clock was called up by Mr. WRIGHT. Mr. PREStos pressed his ameadment declaring it inexpedient to adjourn until some provision was made by law for the protection of the Treasury. This was debated at some length by Messrs. CLAY, KING, PRESTON and WOODBURT. There appearing no probability of the success of the amendment, Mr. PRESTON withdrew it.

The resolution was then, on motion of Mr. CLAY. modified by striking out 11 o'clock, thus leaving the Senate the whole of the day Monday to act on Executive business-the confirmation of the new Cubinet, &c .- and it was then adopted. The amendment was agreed to by the House. The Senate consumed the remainder of the day in Executive ARGUS.
